

Welcome to L1 Labo Anglais!

Please take out your name tags.

Week Three : TV Shows & Binge-Watching

NAME:

Warm Up

What TV show would you recommend that everyone watch and why?

Think about it and be ready to share with the class.

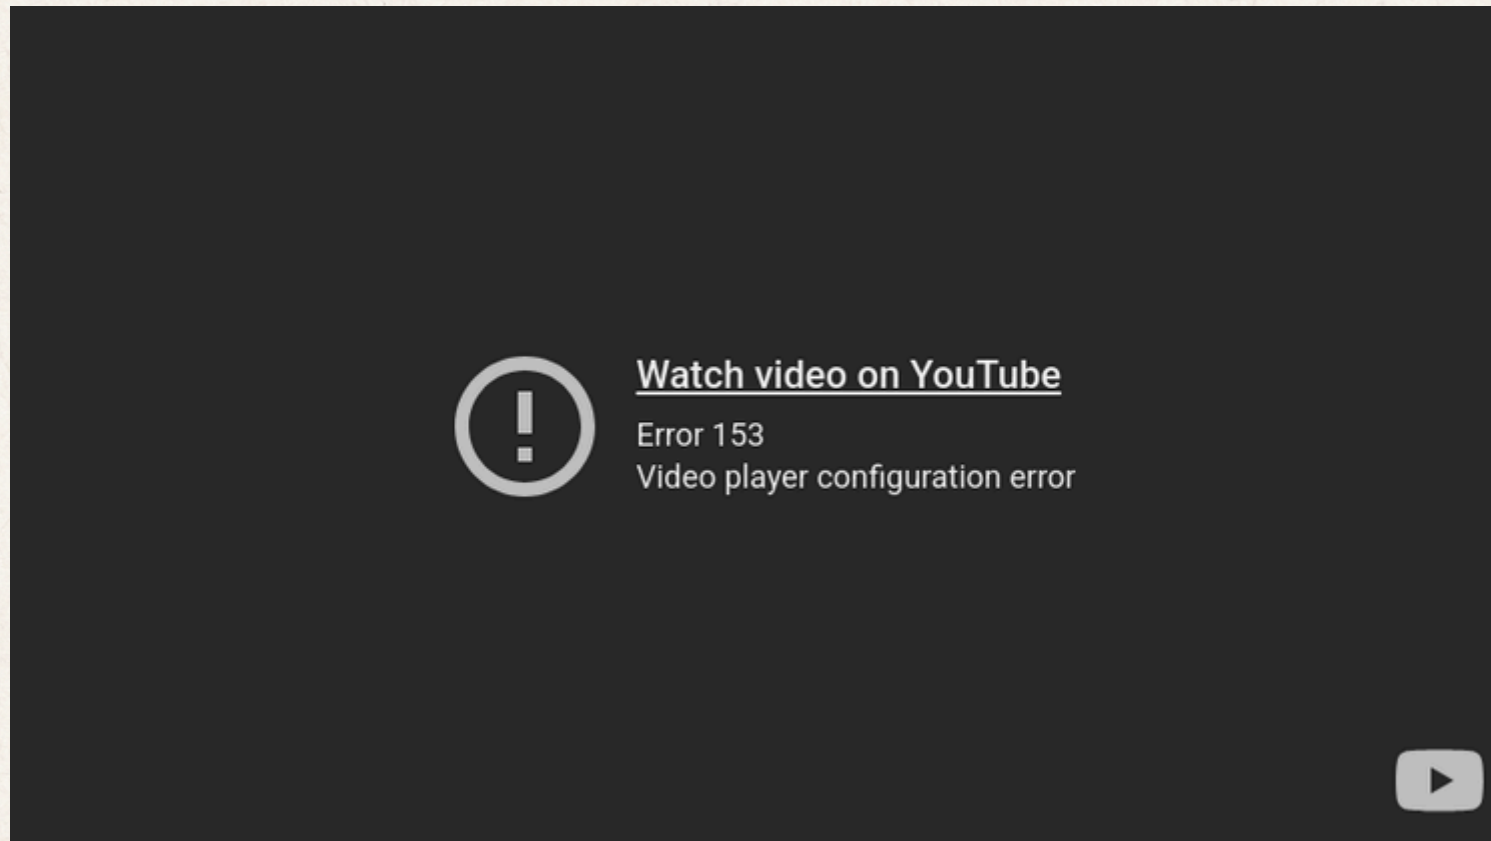

Q & A

- What kinds of media do you normally watch?
 - TV series, films, YouTube
- What genres do you prefer?
 - documentaries/ romance/ reality/ thriller/ soap operas
- What makes media bingeable? Are some things more bingeable than others?
- Do you feel the need to complete a TV series once you have started it?
- When you watch a show, do you give it your full attention, or are you normally multitasking?

Which Character Represents Us the Most

Binge-watching can't be good for you – but is it really that bad?

2 DEC 2017 | PBS NEWSHOUR

- What do we normally associate 'binging' with?
- What personal experience does actress Annabelle Gurwitch describe?
- Negative consequences of binge-watching are:
 - Are there any positive outcomes?
- Are binge-watching shows and voracious reading alike?
- Do you know any of the media references made in the video? List them

Vocabulary

- to keep up (with a series)
- glued to the computer
- drag yourself to bed
- a cliffhanger
- being engrossed in a great novel
- genres
- in your free time
- in the original language / subtitled/dubbed

The jury is out on that one ...

Netflix keeps removing shows!

Don't Miss Your Chance to Watch These Movies and Shows Leaving in January

Stream Lost, House of Lies, and the Kung Fu Panda films before the month ends.

N Netflix Tudum / Dec 23, 2025

The jury is out on that one ...

In your group of three, pick a show that Netflix removed or one that is leaving.

- Create a quick pitch to advocate for the show staying on / returning to the platform
 - include the show and a general summary and genre (no or limited spoilers)
 - give advice to heartbroken fans like yourself (suggest another show or streaming service)
 - provide one or two strong reasons as to why it should stay or return

Polite/tentative suggestions	You might want to + infinitive verb I recommend that you + verb
Strong suggestions	You should/shouldn't + infinitive verb You'd better + infinitive verb