Week Eight

NAME:

Warm Up

Name these inventions and try to figure out what they have in common.₂

Starter Qs

“Feminism is the belief that everyone, regardless of gender, should have equal rights and opportunities.”

UN Women Feb 2026

- What does feminism mean to you?
- What is International Women’s Rights Day about?
- Name at least 3 women who inspire you. In groups, discuss what it is that they do that you admire.
 - You can include one family member
- What do you know about traditional gender roles?

#Embrace Equity

For IWD 2023, the global campaign theme was #EmbraceEquity.

The campaign aims to encourage important conversations on Why equal opportunities aren't enough and Why equal isn't always fair. People start from different places, so true inclusion and belonging require equitable action.

We can all challenge gender stereotypes, call out discrimination, draw attention to bias, and seek out inclusion. Collective activism is what drives change. From grassroots action to wide-scale momentum, we can all embrace equity.

And to truly embrace equity, means to deeply believe, value, and seek out difference as a necessary and positive element of life. To embrace equity means to understand the journey required to achieve women's equality.

What is the difference between Equality and Equity?

Equity - means everyone is provided with what they need to succeed

Equality - means everyone is treated the same exact way, regardless of differences

What are some of the biggest problems women face today?

How would you address it with an equity-based approach?

Feminism in the US

Intersectional feminism- centres the voices of those experiencing overlapping, concurrent forms of oppression in order to understand the depths of the inequalities and the relationships among them in any given context.

Intersectionality

In 2021, the maternal mortality rate for Black women was 69.9 deaths per 100,000 live births, 2.6 times the rate for White women.

Missing and Murdered Indigenous People Crisis

Violence Against Native Americans and Alaska Natives far exceed national averages

For decades, Native American and Alaska Native communities have struggled with high rates of assault, abduction, and murder of tribal members. Community advocates describe the crisis as a legacy of generations of government policies of forced removal, land seizures and violence inflicted on Native peoples.

- A 2016 study by the National Institute of Justice (NIJ) found that more than four in five American Indian and Alaska Native women (84.3 percent) have experienced violence in their lifetime, including 56.1 percent who have experienced sexual violence.
- In the year leading up to the study, 39.8 percent of American Indian and Alaska Native women had experienced violence, including 14.4 percent who had experienced sexual violence.
- Overall, more than 1.5 million American Indian and Alaska Native women have experienced violence in their lifetime.

Do you think France is a feminist country?

- Do you think the French Feminist movement differentiates itself from the Feminist movement at large?
 - If so, how?
- Where do you feel the French Feminist movement is now?
